CALL TO ORDER:

Kevin Schramm called the meeting to order at 7:30 PM. Link Hoewing and Rebecca Munster were in attendance.

BUSINESS:

Visual Timeline – Professional Looking

1. July 12th deadline to van Eperen for a final copy, ready for release to public and press.

Intermediate Communication

2. First weeks of July need to contact the following to provide update and explain that we need to be kept a priority so that some of the planning money devoted to projects in FY20 get devoted to Poolesville. Just say, hey, we are not pancaking, but we want to make sure that some money is available for Poolesville out of the 6 projects that were labelled as priorities.
 - a) Will Jawando
 - b) Hans Reimer
 - c) Andrew Friedson
 - d) Evan Glass
 - e) Gabe Albornoz

Ongoing Communication

1. Link talked with Deena Levine, asked if she would offer a statement in support
2. We should round-robin and each take a turn to testify in front of the BOE at the smaller work session testimonies. So that the BOE hears from us at each meeting. The next workshop is July 11 and sign up is July 5th.
3. Kasey Kasemen – Interfaith Coordinator for the County Executive is coming to Town on July 11th at 9:00 AM to hear about Fair Access.
